Happy 27th anniversary NAMFREL volunteers!

- NAMFREL celebrates today its 27th founding anniversary. Formally organized in October 1983, its roots can be traced to as early as 1957 with the establishment of the Operations Registration Committee. The Citizens National Electoral Assembly (CNEA) formed in the 1960s and 1970s was also the precursor of NAMFREL. Today, NAMFREL continues the tradition of a citizens’ group working for political and electoral reforms. In 1986, citizen vigilance in the snap elections showed what Filipinos can do to restore democracy in the country. 500,000 NAMFREL volunteers offered their time and energy, even their lives, to preserve the sanctity of the ballot. Since 1984, NAMFREL has participated in Philippine national and local elections as an accredited citizens’ arm of the Commission on Elections (COMELEC). NAMFREL has also become involved in anti-corruption and good governance programs, and has been participating in bids and awards procedures of various government agencies. Internationally, NAMFREL volunteers have worked as trainers, observer team members, election administrators and resource persons in 31 countries so far. Its volunteers have also been directly involved in the creation of similar election monitoring organizations in some of these countries.

No need for common poster areas

- The Commission on Elections (Comelec) Legal Department Chairman Ferdinand Rafanan yesterday expressed that the rule on the use of common poster areas for election candidates should be scrapped altogether as it just elicits scorn for the poll body. Candidates and their supporters continue to post their campaign materials in prohibited areas. The laws being violated by these candidates are Section 9 of the Fair Election Act which requires that lawful propaganda materials be placed only in designated common poster areas; and Section 7 of Comelec Resolution 9043 which provides that not more than 10 common poster areas, such as plazas, markets and barangay centers, should be designated in each barangay by election officers (EO). The same resolution strictly prohibits the posting of campaign materials on streets, bridges, public structures or buildings, trees, electric posts or wires, schools, shrines, and main thoroughfares. Those who will violate the rule will be imprisoned for one to six years and the cancellation of their right to vote and be elected to public office. The futility of the common poster rule is not only caused by materials being posted in the prohibited areas but also caused by the rule allowing these materials to be posted in private places like houses, retail stores and the like provided that it has the consent of the owner (cited in Sec.6 Res. No. 9043). Most candidates can enjoy the benefit of widespread posting even outside the common poster area because of this rule. Hence such rule defeats the principle of equal campaigning if private individuals can permit them because it merely tolerates candidates who can reproduce more paraphernalia in his/her campaign. However, another reason why the law is violated is because of poor implementation of the law by Comelec election offices.
